Deputy Reeve Addresses Stanhope Inaugural Meet

The inaugural meeting of the Stanhope council was held in the council chamber on Monday, January 9.

The following is an address given by deputy reeve Alex Hewitt on that occasion.

Once again we stand at the beginning of a new year—a time to take stock of what we have done and what we hope to do. We have a new face in council and as deputy reeve I wish to extend to him our congratulations and good wishes.

Perhaps we did not do all we hoped to do. Our hopes for owning our own road equipment did not materialize last year so we are still working under difficulties.

You are all aware of the unhappy circumstances in connection with the change of the portage at Buck slides and I know you will be happy to know that legislation has been passed by the province that has solved our problems satisfactorily. Here I would like to publicly thank the members of the Boskung Lake cottagers association for the donation of $75. This money was used to fight for the project and which I am sorry to say the council neglected to notify them that it was a "mission completed."

Snow is a real problem to the council, roads must be kept open, they are used as much in winter as in summer, not only for school buses, residential traffic, but more people are coming up in the winter. This all means money to the township. What has happened? We let this contract verbally to the lowest tender. The work has been so unsatisfactory that my telephone hardly stops. As deputy reeve I regret these circumstances, but please remember I am only one voice in council and have only one vote.

Many of you are aware that we had to pay a special levy from county council of $2,600. We fortunately had the money to pay this without borrowing from the bank and having to pay interest. While there are about $10,000 outstanding in taxes which we hope to collect the major portion—we are in a good financial position.

Our assessor's salary has been raised $500 last year making his salary $1,500 a year. Owing to increase in work the members of council have been allowed by the Municipal Act $12 a meeting. I personally feel that the citizens should be aware of salary increases.

As each councillor makes a declaration to serve his community when taking oath of office I regret that a family in need at Christmas was not visited by our relief officer and no help was offered. Another councillor was asked to investigate along with myself but he did not have time to serve the public. Public assistance should not have been denied the family at this time, as the municipal act states that no family must be left in need.

It is my personal experience that it is much better to realize our weaknesses than to have others tell us about it. I hope we are here to do our best.

In former years councils have been working under a misapprehension that the winter works projects were only for men on relief. I have enquired and I know that this idea is wrong. These projects are intended to keep men off the unemployment fund and off relief. This should have been planned months in advance which I personally advocated as this requires approval by the senior levels of government. This takes time. We need the portage cleaned up at Buttermilk Falls, one of the greatest tourist attractions we have in the county.

The Dept. of Lands and Forests have offered us a spot at very low rental which could be done under a winter project program with more government assistance.

If we want tourists we have to make the township more attractive and plan ahead, not for this year but for many years to come.

I feel sure the citizens who used the newly mulched roads are satisfied with our work.

This is a short resume of what we have done and God willing we hope to do.

I wish to extend my best wishes for the new year to everyone and I assure you of my sincere co-operation as far as possible.

Former Residents Called By Death

Two former residents of Haliburton passed away on Sunday last. We refer to Thomas Cowen who was in his 76th year and Kenneth (Bud) Lane who was in his 49th year.

The late Mr. Cowen passed away in Lindsay and funeral services were held from the Haliburton United Church on Tuesday afternoon.

The late Bud Lane passed away in Minden and service was held from the chapel of John Welch & Son in Minden on Wednesday afternoon.

Curling Gets Off To Big Start In Haliburton

Curling is now in full swing in Haliburton. Three scheduled games have been played in the men's section and two in the ladies, with enthusiasm running high.

This year a couples' club has been organized consisting of 32 players, who play a scheduled game every Thursday night. This has promoted many new curlers into the game.

The Haliburton curling club and Canadian Legion 129 are holding their second annual Skyline bonspiel next week end and great preparations are being made to make this one even better than last year which was filled to capacity with 32 rinks. This year is no exception for at time of going to press the draws are all filled with some on a waiting list hoping for cancellations.

On Saturday, February 4, the club is holding a one day mixed bonspiel, two draws at 9 and 11 a.m. consisting of three eight end games and four sets of prizes. There are still vacancies.

Mail your entry to Mrs. Bernice Scott, Haliburton, and spend a week end of good curling in Haliburton on four sheets of natural ice.

WHAT MINDEN COUNCIL DID

The inaugural meeting of the Anson, Hindon and Minden council was held in the council chamber on Tuesday, January 3 with reeve L. A. Pritchard, deputy reeve Chas. Brandon and councillors J. O. Jackson, Reg Booth and Robert J. Harvey all present.

The Rev. Thos. Gracie who was present, spoke briefly to the council and led in prayer.

Reeve L. A. Pritchard was asked to check regarding the availability and price of additional property in the vicinity of the Minden cemetery and to have as much information as possible ready for the next meeting.

The clerk was asked to get the necessary information regarding the sale of debentures for construction of a new public school.

Council is to ask Mr. Reg Hicks to consult Mr. Norman Maidens of the H.E.P.C. regarding the possibility of establishing a street lighting system in Ingoldsby.

The clerk was asked to write Dr. Berry, general manager of the Ontario Water Resources Commission asking him to attend a ratepayers meeting in Minden to discuss the possibility of installing a water system in the designated Minden area. The council is planning to hold a plebiscite to determine the wishes of the ratepayers regarding this matter.

The telephone contract of Harold Rowden, lot 16, conc. 11, Minden township, was approved.

The clerk was asked to write Mr. Harold Elstone and inform him that if he builds a proposed road across his property the township is prepared to take over the new road as a municipal road subject to the approval of the Dept. of Highways. It is understood that the present road would be deeded to Mr. Elstone in lieu of the new road.

The township is to enter into an agreement with the Dysart telephone system whereby the telephone system will use the water line leading from the river to the recreation centre. This agreement is to be signed by the reeve and the clerk on behalf of the municipality.

Mrs. Dorothy Hicks is to be paid $25 for rental of the Ingoldsby dump for the current year.

Eldon Deacon was appointed fire chief at $100 (retaining fee) annually plus an hourly wage for work done. Max Jackson was appointed deputy fire chief at regular firemen's rate.

Assessor Jack Hill was granted an increase to $2,400 per annum including travelling expenses.

Council is to apply to the Dept. of Highways for permission to call for tenders in order to replace the oldest truck now owned by the municipality as per specifications, and that the clerk be authorized to call for said tenders when and if permission is received.

The following were appointed to the municipal recreation committee for 1961: J. O. Jackson and Robert Harvey Jr. representing council, Doug Pritchard, Donald Nye, Ellwood Cox, Jas. Elder and Richard Harrison.

The clerk was authorized to borrow up to $50,000 to cover current expenses until revenue from taxation is available.

Council is to accept the proposal for the re-location

Four County Youths Jailed For Break-In

Bill Davies, Thomas Johnson and Dennis Paul of Haliburton and Lloyd Bull of Eagle Lake are being held in the county jail at Lindsay without bail.

The four youths are charged with breaking, entry, theft and malicious damage to the home of Mrs. Edna Archer of Eagle Lake.

They come up for trial in Lindsay on Monday, January 16. The information was laid by Constable Mountsteven of the Haliburton detachment of the O.P.P.

We understand police are continuing their investigation of other break-ins in this area and it may be possible that others will find themselves on the inside looking out.

Our officers are making a determined effort to put an end to the all too-frequent break-ins in this locality but we must say that in many cases they do not get much co-operation.

WHAT DYSART COUNCIL DID

The inaugural meeting of the Dysart council for the year 1961 was held in the council chamber at 10.30 a.m. on Monday. All members were present and were duly administered the oath of office and installed in their respective chairs around the council table as follows: Holly L. Sisson, reeve; Roy Brohm, deputy reeve; Robert J. Bishop Sr., councillor ward 1; Christie Cowen, councillor ward 2 and Orval G. Morrison of ward 3.

The Rev. George D. Petrie of the Haliburton United Church addressed the members of the council appropriately drawing to their attention from whence all power and authority comes and the allegiance to which all rulers and citizens were admonished by St. Paul in his letter to the Romans and asked divine blessing upon the proceedings of the council during the ensuing year.

After a few appreciative remarks by the reeve, deputy reeve and councillor Bishop with reference to the spirit which prevails in deliberations of the council pertaining to the economies and general welfare of the people of the municipality, the usual business of the council was proceeded with as follows.

The minutes of the previous meetings of December 19 and 24 were found to be in order and were adopted as read.

The accounts for the balance of 1960 Nos. 1280 to 1278 inclusive totaling $30,715.59 and direct relief accounts for December totaling $714.41 were passed as of of signs at the Minden entrances as per the suggestion of the Dept. of Highways in their letter of November 3, 1960, regarding sign number G65.

Council made the following annual grants: public library $75, agricultural society $125, St. John's Ambulance $10, Minden Red Cross $25.

Accounts were paid amounting to $427.78.

Mrs. Richard Kirkwood was appointed to the Haliburton County District High School board for 1961. Mrs. Kirkwood is to be invited to attend the next meeting of council to give a report on her work as a board member.

Council is planning to construct a sidewalk from Victor Cadell's B-A station south towards the Red Cross hospital.

The next regular meeting of the council will be held on Wednesday, February 8 at 9 a.m.

December 31, 1960.

Accounts for January 1961 Nos. 1 to 13 inclusive totaling $1,236.81 were also passed and signed.

Deputy reeve Roy Brohm, the M.O.H. Dr. L. H. Carroll and Thos. A. Irwin were appointed as the board of health for the year of 1961.

A motion was passed that the community centres board be comprised of the following: R. J. Bishop and Orval Morrison from the council; Frank Litt and Elizabeth Nicol for 1961-62; Adeline Roberts, Irene Hill and Richard Clarke for 1961.

It was proposed and passed that the mortgage conveyance of part of lot 18, conc. VIII Dysart from Jeanne Alice Bishop to Victoria & Grey Trust Co. dated November 25, 1960, be accepted.

The application of the Jewish Camp Council for telephone service to their property on lots 12, conc. V, Harburn, was approved by council.

It was moved that the secretary of the Dysart township school board be informed that the board's original estimate of four hours dental care is in actual expenditure far in excess of that amount and the board be requested to take some action to curtail this expenditure.

Christie Cowen and R. J. Bishop were appointed to the Harcourt community centre board from council and Royce Packard and Wm. McLaren were appointed to the board for the years of 1961 and 1962 from the Township of Harcourt.

REPORT FROM POSTMASTER GENERAL
Postal workers throughout Ontario heaved a post-Christmas sigh of relief this week and doffed their caps to the mailing public for what the postmaster general, Wm. Hamilton called "the finest co-operation ever."

While postal figures were not yet complete, Mr. Hamilton said that all indications pointed to a somewhat heavier mail volume than experienced in 1959.

The postmaster general stated that due to the excellent co-operation of the people in mailing early for Christmas, the carry-over of undelivered mail was negligible. Many post offices were cleaned out in advance of Christmas, and postmasters agree that the public interest in early mailing had never been higher.

The postmaster general pointed out that this year a special effort was made to handle first class mail on a priority basis, and new successful techniques in the usage of extra part time staffs were used.

Finally, Mr. Hamilton stated that without the generous help of the press, radio and television, the postal service could not have done nearly as effective a job on the Christmas mails.

HALIBURTON

Miss Edith Black of Toronto was a visitor to Haliburton over the past week end.

Home for Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kellett were Mr. and Mrs. Murray Kellett of Weston, Mr. and Mrs. George Bradley, Kathy, Brenda and Carol of Fonthill, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Kellett, Stephen, Jayne, Murray and Maureen of Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Brown of Dundas. For New Year's Mr. Bill Kellett of Guelph and Mary Lynch of St. Thomas.

Five Haliburton curlers attended a bonspiel at Huntsville on Friday, namely, Harold Black, Eric McConnell, Dick Clarke, Ron Curry and Lester Walling. All reported good curling and a good time.

WEDDING

Addison-Hewitt

In a setting of Yule decorations with white carnations on the altar and Rev. T. Gracie officiating in a double ring ceremony, Eleanor Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hewitt of Minden, became the bride of Thomas Frank, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Addison of Toronto on December 24 at 2:30 p.m.

Soloist was Miss Cairine McCarey with Mrs. Don James as organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown designed and made by her mother of brocade white peau de soleil with sweetheart neckline and lily point sleeves, with a filmy overskirt accented with appliques of brocade. Her short veil fell from a halo also adorned with appliques and she carried an orchid surrounded with white mums.

The groom's sister, Margaret Michez, was matron of honor and the bride's cousin, Beverley Jones, was bridesmaid. They were dressed alike in spruce green velvet, styled after the bride's dress. Their headdresses were white fur bandeaus and each carried poinsettias on a white fur muff.

Brian Michez attended the groom and Mr. Lewis Hewitt of Ottawa and Mr. Thom Norris of Toronto ushered.

Following the ceremony the bride's mother received the guests attired in brown brocade with yellow rose corsage, assisted by the groom's mother in printed silk and wearing bronze rose corsage.

Following the wedding a delicious turkey dinner was served by the St. Paul's W.M.S. with six high school girls as waitresses. Mr. Earl Hewitt proposed a toast to the bride to which the groom responded and Mr. Michez toasted the bridesmaids.

The happy couple left by air for New York. The bride chose a red and white ensemble for going away. After the honeymoon they will reside in Scarboro where they both teach school.

"THE MINDEN STORY"
Chapter 11

FIRST to tend the forge in Minden village was Mark Morrison whose shop was located on the north side of Gull River where Hewitt Transport's old warehouse used to stand. John Welch, of Dorset, England, who became the village's first undertaker, also kept a blacksmith shop on the property now owned by his son, Frank Welch.

The saying went that a kingdom was lost for want of a nail. With several smiths working in Minden the kingdom was safe. However, when transport depended on hoofed animals a smith had to be able to literally make anything from a needle to an anchor including fire irons and ice tongs for the householder, wagons, sleighs, democrats and cutters for the traveling public; wedges, canthooks, boom chains, double trees, etc., for the logging industry; even coffins to bury the dead.

In John Welch's ledger for 1886, Georgie Smith bought two coffins—the first cost $3, the second $6. This may have been during the black diphtheria plague which some sources date in 1886, some two years later.

Shoeing horses and oxen and equipment repairs generally comprised the bulk of a blacksmith's work. However John Welch annually filled large orders of all kinds of iron tools for Rathburns and the Gull River Co. In those days repairing a shoe cost a dime, the price of a new shoe was a quarter. Today the same service would be valued in dollars.

Mark Morrison, whose family eventually migrated to the prairies, also owned one of the "Muley Up-and-Down Saws" commonly used before 1850. Built on a creek on the farm once owned by Alex Reynolds, the wide pine lumber cut in this primitive mill was driven down the creek to the Gull River. After being thoroughly sun dried, the boards were sold to the town people and the more prosperous farmers who were replating their log cabins with frame houses.

One of Mark Morrison's sons, (probably Ralph or William, born on New Year's day 1865 would have been 21 at the time) became a living testimonial to the medicinal powers of the fuel usually associated with kerosene lamps. The story goes that when the terrible black diphtheria raged through the country, Mark Morrison dosed his son frequently with coal oil. Young Morrison, of all the children who actually contracted the disease, recovered.

Many disasters and tragedies occurred in the formative years of Haliburton County but the diphtheria scourge looms blackest of all, for it attacked those who had no defense, the children. During those terrible winter months the pale horse whose rider was Death roved the county stopping alike at the fine homes of the prosperous and the shantys of the poor. None could forbid him entrance.

When he retreated the land was filled with the heart-broken sobs of scores of pioneer Rachels, weeping for their children and refusing to be comforted because they were no more. Over a period of several months whole families were wiped out. For example, the Waughs at Pigeon Lake lost all their children. At South Lake the more fortunate Munns were able to save one. Of James Fairfield's family of eight, four were spared.

To keep alive the memory of their three children who fell victim to the plague, Mr. and Mrs. S. Lott gave their names to the three little ones who were born after the disaster. John Mortimer and his wife lost seven children. Fortunately, when the time of trouble had passed a son was born. In a touching tribute to the devotion of a dedicated Anglican minister, the Rev. J. G. Dean, who with Dr. Curry braved death in its most lethal form to bring comfort to the bereaved families, he was named Dean Mortimer.

Inadequately armed against the black destroyer, Dr. Charles D. Curry unselfishly pitted his faith and personal courage to wage a battle for the precious lives of the children which he must have known was doomed to fail. As the only doctor in the area he was constantly called to the bedsides of the little ones only to witness their death struggle. It was said that the ordeal silvered his hair.

At Haliburton, during a similar outbreak, Dr. Giles, John Lucas and John and Duke Kellett, braved contamination to bury the victims at night in the Evergreen cemetery.

A personal account of any event is more valuable than any story pieced together 75 years after. By gracious permission of a daughter of the famous doctor's, Miss Isabel Curry who still resides at Minden, here is a letter written by her mother, then Miss Marion Stuart, the day after she arrived in Minden.

One must take into consideration that the letter was written by a girl of 17 or 18 who had seldom been away from her home. It has all the symptoms of an acute attack of home sickness. Her opinions of the village consequently improved for she kept her position with Mr. Pearce until her marriage to Dr. Charles D. Curry.

Here is Miss Marion's letter written at Minden on August 8, 1877: "My Dear Darling Alice:

"Pen can't describe with what feeling I sit down to write to you. I did not expect much certainly—but horrors! such a place. I shall give you a few items of what I have endured since I arrived. They eat in the kitchen, servant girl, teamster, children, parents and self, all at the same table, the girl with her sleeves rolled up to the elbow, no butter knife, flies thick and occasionally Mrs. P. takes one between her fingers and then squeezes it. I am perfectly sick, I could not stay on any consideration. There is not a decent room in the house. My room is a little bit of a place, no carpet, sheets with holes and worst of all a horrid cracked glass that sets my face all awry, so different from my old bright cheerful airy room.

"I have been making accounts all day till my back ached and my brain whirled. After tea I went for a walk and got stared at as if I was a new caught savage. The village is small but prettily situated on the Gull River. A small steamer comes every day, not near as large as our Caribella. It is all surrounded by rocks. Driving from Kinmount, the nearest station, was exactly like going to Glencairn only a great deal worse, rocks upon rocks, wild as possible. I really thought I had got to the world's end.

"When I got off the train, there was no one there to meet me so I started to walk up to the village of Kinmount and a man took my wraps and took me to a tavern that looked like that old log place of May Wells, and up a rickety stair into a room vilely hot and dirty. You can just imagine me sitting there disconsolately tired and faced with the prospect of sleeping there all night. It looked like a place where they would rob you of your money, so I picked up my wraps and thought I'll not stay here if I know anything so I found another tavern a regree better.

"In a few minutes Mrs. Pearce drove up in a red buckboard and an old bony white horse. She looks not unlike Mrs. Hamilton, rather nice looking. He is an old dodger, canny and cautious. I have been in many a queer place but this beats all. Perhaps before this reaches you I will be on my way back to Orillia and go with Georgie or else to Kincardine as I have just had a pressing invitation to go up there. I will try for another place, don't you think I would be foolish to stay here? I could not really do it.

"I had a splendid time down as far as Lindsay. Mama will tell you how Mr. Beaton stayed over and went down with me. Will Grant did too. Mr. B. was awfully kind, he was sorry I was going away, I felt homesick after he left me at Lindsay. He went at 5 o'clock in the morning and I didn't start till three. I left my parasol in the train the evening I came to Lindsay and they took it to Port Hope. I got them to telegraph for it but did not get it. Of course I will never see it again.

"I am writing this in my office, which consists of a little square place hung round with newspapers so people can't see me because Mr. Pearce says that sometimes they come and look over and then they don't talk very nice—delightful prospect! (Could this have been because female office help was at the time unknown on the frontier?)

"I must go to bed. We have breakfast at seven so I retire early, so I shall go to my lonely room and think of you. I suppose you will think I am never contented but I had made up my mind to stay if it was decent, this is not. Which would you advise me to do, go to Kincardine or Orillia? Don't say anything to anyone about my not liking Minden, I mean out of the house. Here I am stringing off a lot more nonsense. Give my love to all at home and dear Alice, write me the minute you get this, just directly or else I shall take a fit. Now goodbye and believe me ever your loving sister,

May Stuart.

"P.S.—I sigh tonight for 'the sound of a voice that I know.' I suppose you think I can sigh till I am black in the face. May."

OBITUARY

Alexander Herbert Mumford

Citizens from all over this area were both saddened and shocked to learn of the sudden passing of Bert Mumford, a highly respected and popular resident of Tory Hill, on Saturday, December 24.

The deceased had been in apparent good health until the morning of his death when he complained of feeling ill and despite the best of medical care his condition gradually worsened and he passed away in mid-afternoon.

The late Herbert Mumford who was in his 51st year at the time of his demise, was born in Harcourt, the son of the late John Mumford and the late Alice Pacey. As a young boy he attended the Beech Ridge school and after finishing school he worked for a time on his father's farm and later was employed in the lumbering industry.

During the past five years he had worked with the surveyors on the staff of the Dept. of Highways. The deceased was married in 1930, choosing as his life partner the former Lettie Dunford who survives him.

He was a valued member of North Entrance Lodge A.F.&A.M., whose members held a Masonic service at his home on the Monday evening following his death.

The late Bert Mumford was a faithful member of Tory Hill United Church where the funeral service was held on Tuesday afternoon, December 27 when the minister, Mr. C. A. Dawson spoke words of hope and comfort to the bereaved and paid sterling tribute to the deceased.

The beautiful and many profuse floral tributes and the fact that many persons were unable to gain admittance to the church attest the love and esteem of which this fine citizen was held by all who knew him.

Left to mourn his loss besides a sorrowing wife, is one daughter Aileen (Mrs. Gerard Blodgett) of Peterboro and two brothers, Corie of Timmins and Arthur of Harcourt. Two brothers, James and William, predeceased him.

Pallbearers, all nephews of the deceased, were Edward, Cecil, Dale, Douglas and James Mumford and Clayton Dunford.

Interment was made in South Wilberforce Cemetery.
